Dear Valerie,

Additional project agreements will be prepared (e.g. Investigator Meeting, eCRFs, purchase of scanners/computers). We will be meeting internally later this week and I should be able to provide you further information following the meeting.

We are reviewing the hourly rate for Mary Westrick. I hope to send you the latest version of the existing Individual Project Agreements tomorrow for your final review. There is a fourth agreement that you didn't list. It covers sample analysis for the pilot TES (PM-1148) and PM-1169 and also additional costs for data management for PM-1148.

Regards,

Jill

Dear Jill:

Now that the Master Services contract has been executed, we are beginning to pull together project agreements. To date we have received three project agreement proposals (in the format outlined in the Master Services contract) from Covance: [1) JLI sample analysis-4/9/02, 2) Project direction/management-5/20/02, 3) Call Center-06/04/02].

Beyond the three individual project agreements mentioned above, I do not show that we have received any others from Covance. I have, however, received copies of the written proposal for the investigator meetings (meeting consultant and estimated budget). Will Covance be sending us an investigator meetings proposal in the project agreement format to include this information?

Also, I understand from talking with Hans that there is an outstanding question with regard to proposed rates in the project direction/management agreement; do you know where this stands?

Thanks,
Valerie
